Happy Holidays from Silicon Valley Creates!

It’s not difficult to be jolly this holiday season with the abundance of joyous arts and entertainment events available in Silicon Valley. Here are three options below and many more at LiveSV.com!

Enjoy the time-honored tradition of The Choral Project’s annual holiday concert, Winter’s Gifts. The concert is a celebration of the season, as told through the glorious voices of The Choral Project and the moving music of the San Jose Chamber Orchestra. Come warm your heart and immerse yourself in beautiful music that honors many of our local cultures’ winter festivals. December 22nd at the Mission Santa Clara de Asis at Santa Clara University. For more information, call 408-279-0161 or visit http://www.livesv.com/event/detail/441747070.

The beloved Bugs Bunny on Broadway Concert Series celebrates its 20th anniversary with the world premiere of a new sequel; Warner Bros. presents Bugs Bunny at the Symphony II. Celebrate the beloved Looney Tunes cartoon and its legendary stars projected on the big screen while its extraordinary, original scores are played live by Symphony Silicon Valley! December 28th–29th at the San Jose Center for the Performing Arts in Downtown San Jose. For more information, call 408-286-2600 ext. 2 or visit http://www.livesv.com/event/detail/441801498.

Skate under the stars amid a circle of thirty-two palm trees in a spectacular setting upon an iconic 8,000-square-foot ice rink at Downtown Ice, part of many families' Silicon Valley holiday tradition. November 15th–January 12th in Downtown San Jose. For more information, call 408-279-1775 or visit http://www.livesv.com/event/detail/441783492.

THE NUTCRACKER: THE CLASSIC HOLIDAY BALLET

If The Nutcracker is an essential part of the season for you, there is no shortage of performances to choose from in Silicon Valley. Foremost among them is the family-friendly, fresh interpretation of the classic tale by Ballet San Jose. Choreographer and former Ballet San Jose Principal Dancer Karen Gabay’s rendition includes a new and ingenious twist (we won’t tell!) with nearly 100 dancers filling the stage. Gabay’s stylish, smart staging brings bravura dancing and just the right amount of sugar and spice to put even the grumpiest of Scrooges in the holiday spirit. All performances feature live music by Symphony Silicon Valley. (Dec 13-26: Fri, 7pm; Sat, 1:30 & 7pm; Sun, 1:30pm at San Jose: Center for the Performing Arts, 255 Almaden Blvd.; 408/288-2800. www.balletsj.org)

And for a delightfully modern take on the ballet, Dennis Nahat presents the North American premiere of The Terracotta Prince. With music by Tchaikovsky and featuring the award-winning Dalian Acrobatic Troupe from China, this enchanting, modern stage presentation delights with its breathtaking acrobatics and dance—from daring aerial stunts and bicycle wire acts to synchronized hat juggling and dancers on roller skates hurtling star-shaped boomerangs into the audience. This is a one-of-a-kind treat for the whole family! Produced by Theatre Ventures International Ballet School and Productions of San Jose. (Dec 18-29: Mon, Wed & Fri, 7:30pm; Sat, 1:30, 4:30 & 7:30pm; Sun, 1:30pm. Cupertino: Flint Center, 21250 Stevens Creek Blvd.; 408/864-8816; www.terracottaprince.com/)

A MUSICAL FAIRY TALE

Be spirited away to a magical place this holiday season at San Jose Repertory Theatre’s world premiere of The Snow Queen, a musical adaptation of Hans Christian Andersen’s fantastical fairy tale. When Kai is taken by the mysterious Snow Queen, his friend Gerda sets upon an epic quest through uncharted lands—including singing flowers, a chattering crow and a talking river—to save him. With an original pop rock score, alluring ballads and urban steam punk flair, you’ll soon realize this isn’t your average bedtime story.

(Thru Dec 22: Tue-Wed, 7:30pm; Thurs-Fri, 8pm; Sat, 3 and/or 8pm; Sun, 2 and/or 7pm. San Jose: 101 Paseo de San Antonio; 408/367-7255www.sjrep.com)
